The first system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff is a treble clef with a 4/4 time signature. It contains a melodic line with eighth and quarter notes. Above the staff are guitar chord diagrams for C, G, and C. The second staff continues the melodic line. The third staff features a rhythmic accompaniment of eighth notes with a steady eighth-note bass line.

A $\text{\textcircled{S}}$ Verse:

The verse section begins with a treble clef and a repeat sign. The melody is written on a single staff with lyrics underneath. Above the staff are guitar chord diagrams for C, G, and C. The lyrics are: "1. Ear-ly in the eve - nin' just a-bout sup-per time, o-ver by the court - house, they're start-ing to un - wind. Four kids on the cor - ner tryin' to bring you up, Wil - lie picks a tune out and he blows it on the harp." The notation includes eighth and quarter notes with slurs and ties.

B Chorus:

The chorus section is written on a single staff with lyrics underneath. Above the staff are guitar chord diagrams for F, C, G, and C. The lyrics are: "Down on the cor - ner, out here in the street, Wil - lie and the". The notation consists of a series of chords, some with a half-note duration.

Verse 2:

Rooster hits the washboard,
 People just gotta smile.
 Blinky thumps the gut bass
 And solos for a while.
 Poor-boy twangs the rhythm out,
 On his Kalamazoo.
 And Willie goes in to a dance
 And doubles on kazoo.

Verse 3:

You don't need a penny
 Just to hang around,
 But if you got a nickle,
 Won't you lay your money down.
 Over on the corner,
 There's a happy noise.
 People come from all around
 To watch the magic boy.
