

Larry lyrics:

You are lovely, my gift beyond compare. Ever since I knew you the brightness of your smile brings forth a fairy tale. So unique in your ways yet so loving all the time you give your lucky dad the best daughter ever, a rare one of a kind.

When I need a lift you show the way, quick to comfort and never nay to say. Blessed is my life to know you, so fortunate I say, you gift me always in every single way.

God has a plan for me, He placed you here that way and for that I am so thankful every single day.
