

Reasons to Rhymes

A.

G C D

The sign on the door tells you what to expect But when you buy it you tend

Am Em D

to regret The words that you chose to forget

Em C

One in the hand bites Like two in the bush And sometimes a shove Is a push

B Chorus:

G C Em

As a beautiful, beautiful sun, washes over all that we've done There is nothing, nothing to be But you, as you are to me.

G C Em

G C Em

A group is too many and one Isn't enough Somewhere's a tree In the other

G C Em

Light is brighter and nights A liar somewhere Beneath it sleep tires

B. Chorus

A.

Am

Nowhere is somebody's home

C

Tomorrow is yesterday's dream

Am

Somehow is anybody's way

C

Later we see how today

B. Chorus

A.

G                    C                    Em

Can is part of a can't Why is a reason to sigh

G                                    C                                    Em

Someday we'll see what we've done Today we'll leave what we shun

B. Chorus