DO I LOVE YOU?

RALPH RAINGER and LEO ROBIN

Do I love you? Does the grass grow? Does the wind blow? Does a stream flow? Well, if they do and you know they do, — Then I love you. Is my love true? Is a star bright? Is a day light? Is the snow white? — Well, if they are and you know they are — My love is true. But e - ven if the grass did-n't grow, — And e - ven if a star did-n't shine, — I would - n't mind the rain or the snow If you were mine. Do I need you? Does a flame burn? Does the world turn? Words and Music by JIMMIE CRANE, AL JACOBS and JIMMY BREWSTER

Slowly
 If I Give My Heart To You, will you han-dle it with care?
 If I Give My Heart To You, will you give me all your love?
 Think it o-ver and be sure, Please don't an-swer til you do,
 Will you al-ways treat me ten - der-ly and in ev-'ry way be fair?
 Will you swear that you'll be true to me
 When you prom-ise all these things to me by the light that shines a-bove? And will you sigh with me when I'm sad Smile with me when I'm glad, And al-ways be as you are with me to- night.

LET THE SUNSHINE IN

From the American Tribal Love-Rock Musical "HAIR"

Words by JAMES RADO and GEROME RAGNI

Music by GALT MacDERMOT

Moderately Cm

We starve, look at one an-oth-er short of breath, walk - ing proud-ly in our win-ter coats, Wear - ing smells from lab-'ra-tor-ies fac-ing a dy-ing na - tion of mov-ing pa-per fan-ta-sy; Lis-t'ning for the new told lies with su-preme vi - sions of lone-ly tunes. Some-where, in-side some-thing, there is a rush of great-ness. Who knows what stands in front of our lives; I fash-ion my fu - ture on films in space.

That night in Man-hat-tan was the start of it,
Our kiss was a sky-ride to the high-est stars,

We lived it and we loved ev-'ry part of it;
We made it with-out touch-ing the han-dle bars;

The glow of moon-light in the park, The lights that spelled your name,

3. I've seen all your qualifications,
You got from Sorbonne,
And the painting you stole from
Picasso,
Your loveliness goes on and on,
Yes it does.

4. When you go on your summer
vacation,
You go to Juan le Pain
With your carefully designed
topless swimsuit,
You get an even suntan,
On your back and on your legs.

5. And when the snow falls,
you're found in St. Moritz,
With the others of the Jet-Set,
And you sip your Napoleon
brandy,
But you never get your lips wet,
No you don't.

6. Your name it is heard in high places,
You know the Aga Khan,
He sent you a race horse for Christmas,
And you keep it just for fun,
For a laugh, ha ha ha.

7. They say that when you get married,
It'll be to a millionaire,
But they don't realize where you came from,
And I wonder if they really care,
Or give a damn.

8. I remember the back streets of Naples,
Two children begging in rags,
Both touched with a burning ambition,
To shake off their lowly born tags,
they try.

A time for mem-ries re-turn-ing, A time for long-ing and yearning, Shades of blue crowd-ing through as I sit here re-mem-ber-ing you. A time for won-d'ring what hap-pened. For won-d'ring why did it hap-pen. No good-bye not a sigh, How could love slip a-way and just die? I thought that you, the night, the sum-mer-time were out of sight and out of mind. Yet here you are, the night, the sum-mer-time still in my heart, I was blind! A time for mem-ries re-turn-ing. Up in the morn-in', out on the job, Work like the dev-il for my Fuss with my wom-an, toil for my kids, Sweat 'til I'm wrin-kled and Show me that riv-er, Take me a cross and wash all my trou-bles a-pay; But that Luck-y Old Sun has noth-in' to do but roll a-round heav-en all gray; While that Luck-y Old Sun has noth-in' to do but roll a-round heav-en all way, Like that Luck-y Old Sun give me noth-in' to do but roll a-round heav-en all day. day. Good day. Lawd a-bove, can't you know I'm pin-in', Tears all in my eyes; Send down that cloud with a sil-ver lin-in', Lift me to Par-a-dise.

 All the stores were closed and shut - tered, All the streets were dark and bare,
 "And for me some Scar - let Rib - bons, Scar - let Rib - bons for my hair."
 In our town no Scar - let Rib - bons, Not one rib - bon for her hair.
 Thru the night my heart was ach - ing, Just be - fore the dawn was break - ing,
 If I live to be two hun - dred, I will nev - er know from where,
 I peeked in and on her bed In gay pro - fu - sion ly - ing there,

Recit

If you ev - er leave me I'll be sad and blue, Don't you ev - er leave me, I'm so in love with you. The birds in the sky would be sad and lone-ly, if they knew that I'd lost my leaves on the trees would be soft - ly sigh-in' if they heard from the breeze that you one and on-ly, They'd be sad don't be Bad To Me. The But I know you left me cry-in' don't be Bad To Me. But I know you won't leave me 'cos you told me so and I've no in - ten - tion of let - ting you go Just as long as you let me know you won't be Bad To Me. So the birds in the sky won't be sad and lone - ly, 'cos they know that I got my one and on - ly, They'll be glad you're not Bad To Me. They'll be glad you're not Bad To Me.

DID YOU SEE HER EYES

By JEFF BARRY

Moderate beat

Well, here she comes, Walk-ing down the street, Well, here she comes, Walk-ing down that street. Did You See Her Eyes?
Did You See Her Eyes? Did You See Her Eyes?
She could make you feel so good, She could make you feel so good,
She could make you feel so good, If you give her time, She could turn your mind. Well, here she comes, Walk-ing down the street, Well, here she comes, Ah, she here she comes, She looks so fine, Well, here she comes, Gon - na looks so sweet. Well
